CAVY RULES 2024

JUNIOR FAIR GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS:

The Stark County Junior Fair operates under the authority of and in conjunction with the Stark County Senior Fair Board. The Junior Fair Board is a department of the Stark County Fair with its own objectives. These objectives in many instances, require rules or guidelines that differ significantly from those of other Stark County Fair Departments. Any boy or girl enrolled in a Stark County Youth organization is eligible to participate in the Stark County Junior Fair. They must abide by the rules and age limitations of said youth organization (4H, FFA, Grange, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, etc.)

To participate in 4H activities, youth must comply with the State 4H membership policy. 4H eligibility begins at age 5 (AND in Kindergarten as of January 1) and ends December 31st of the year in which they attain the age of 19.

2. Exhibitors in 4H classes must be enrolled in 4H club work in Stark County. Exhibits must be from 4H projects approved by the State or Local Extension office.
3. All members are encouraged to show in open class events.
4. Health rules for the livestock exhibits are the same as those governing all open class exhibits. Health papers must be shown, if requested, to the proper person before an animal is assigned a stall.
5. The Board of Directors of the Stark County Agricultural Society will, to the best of their ability, safeguard persons, livestock and articles on the grounds, but will not be responsible for injury, damage, disease, theft or loss of any kind.
6. Animals released due to illness or injury must have a signed release from the Vet, Junior Fair Coordinator and/or barn superintendent. Anyone who removes an animal without permission will be subject to a 1-yr. suspension.
7. Members must clean stalls or pens daily and keep the area neat and attractive. The committee reserves the right to withhold payment if any exhibitor does not keep his/her area clean and/or feed and water livestock.
8. Anyone assisting with showing another exhibitor's animal must be enrolled as a current 4H or FFA or other youth organization member in Stark County.
9. All animals must remain on exhibit at the fair until 6:00pm on Monday, the last day of the fair, EXCEPT market animals.
10. All animals sold remain the property of the member and in the member's care until fair release time, 4:00pm, Monday, the last day of fair.
11. Animals sold are not eligible to be shown again by that exhibitor or any other 4H or FFA member in any Junior Show in the county or state or independent fair in the same year.
12. Exhibitors are responsible for their own veterinary bill.
13. Veterinarians assigned to the fair for check-in will decide all matters of health, presence of disease and stall release.
14. Ribbons and suitable award will be provided by the Fair Board. It is the privilege of the Fair Board to prorate cash premiums if the budget is exceeded.

15. Eligible youth may be members of both 4H (clubs) and vocational agriculture (FFA) or of either group. In all cases, separate and different projects (also different animals and/or products) must be carried in 4H and in vocational agriculture by a member belonging in both organizations. Examples of different and separate projects are sheep breeding, market lambs, pullets, broiler. The same or similar animals or products cannot be shown in both organizations even though they may be carried under different projects or programs. An animal or product may not be shown in more than one county in 4H or FFA classes.
16. Stark County youth programs and the Junior Fair Board will not condone the use of alcohol or drugs by any of its members, volunteers or anyone else associated with the Junior Fair. The Junior Fair Coordinator, Junior Fair Board advisors, FFA advisors, Extension office and the Senior Fair Board will contact parents or legal authorities to handle individuals caught using or under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
17. If a project animal dies after the designated possession date, members will not be permitted to replace the animal for the purpose of exhibition or sale in any Junior Fair event.
18. All entries are due on or before midnight of July 26, 2024 – NO EXCEPTIONS.
19. For all market animals that will be shown, grooming must be done by Stark County Junior Fair exhibitor or the exhibitors immediate family (reference Ohio Administrative Code: Chapter 901-19(P))["Family" means the immediate family of an exhibitor, including but not limited to the exhibitor's parent, step-parent, foster parent, grandparent, step-grandparent, foster grandparent, brother, sister, step-brother, step-sister, half-brother, half-sister, son, daughter, step-son, step-daughter or guardian]. A current Stark County junior fair exhibitor may also assist. This includes all projects entered in the Stark County Jr. Fair show during the Stark County Fair August 27 to September 2, 2024. Consequence of rule is no sale of animal.
20. No one is to handle a junior fair member's animal(s) without the permission of the junior fair exhibitor unless there is an emergency. Committee members may handle animals during the normal course of their duties (i.e., show, sale, weigh-in, pictures, loading, unloading).
21. Judges decisions are final in accordance with other published committee rules.
22. Any Medical/School excuses must be submitted in writing to Committee Chair and Junior Fair Coordinator.
23. It is MANDATORY for all Junior Fair exhibitors to attend a QUALITY ASSURANCE TRAINING CLINIC (QA) by June 1 prior to the fair. Any member who does not attend a QA, will not be allowed to show at fair.
24. Exhibitors must complete a DRUG USE NOTIFICATION FORM (DUNF) for all market and lactating animals prior to show. Those who do not comply WILL NOT be permitted to show. Ohio Revised Code 901-19-06 and 901-19-07 (mandated by the Ohio Department of Agriculture). All Junior Fair Livestock should be drug residue free on the first day of fair unless specified on the DUNF. All members will be responsible for the care of their animals until completion of the Fair or until drug withdrawal period elapses, or if quarantined.

I. CAVY RULES

1. Project animals must be purebred animals according to American Rabbit Breeders Association (ARBA). Contact a member of the Rabbit & Cavy Committee for help in finding purebred Cavies.
2. Cavy projects must be taken in order, regardless of the number of Cavies exhibitor is showing at the fair. Projects should not be repeated. Only ONE (1) Cavy Project may be taken per year. All youth with Cavy projects should participate in the Cavy Show.
3. All Cavies exhibited must be permanently earmarked by a tag in the left ear before arrival at the fair. (See enclosed calendar for date & time of Tattoo & Tag Clinic.) All tags must be done by the final July Entry Clinic Free (only exception is Juniors) or there will be a $5.00 fee per cavy.
4. Cavies exhibited must be clean, free of parasites and in good health. The superintendent may send any animal home at their discretion.
5. Exhibitors are responsible for caring for their project animal daily through the last day of the fair. Care includes checking in or out, cleaning pens, feeding and watering. Any failure to fulfill these requirements will result in forfeiture of premium money. No early Departure. Exhibitors are responsible for bringing their own feed and bedding. (Bedding will be provided the first day of the fair only.)
6. No locks may be placed on cages. Zip ties are permitted.
7. All animals sold in any Junior Fair Show throughout the state, may not be shown or sold in any other Junior show within the same year.
8. There must be a minimum of 5 Cavies in a breed and 2 exhibitors for exhibitors to be eligible for awards. Rosettes will be awarded if there are less than 5 animals.
9. Exhibitors winning an award must turn in an addressed, stamped thank you note to a Stark County Junior Fair Rabbit & Cavy Committee member by Saturday of Fair by 4pm. The Rabbit & Cavy Committee will give out sponsors' name and address after the show.
10. In the event a project animal dies after the designated possession date, members will not be permitted to replace that animal for the purpose of exhibition or sale. Members may, however, replace the animal for the purpose of completing the project, showmanship and/or skill-a-thon. Exhibitors should report the death of any animal immediately to a committee member.
11. All exhibitors will receive a $5.00 premium per cavy project registration.
12. Parents or Advisors need to contact a member of the Rabbit & Cavy Committee if they have a participant with a learning or physical disability.
13. Each exhibitor should attend the Jr. Fair Cavy Show and show their own cavy(s). If this is not possible, you must notify the committee and you must find another Junior Fair exhibitor to show for you.

IT IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THAT ALL YOUTH WISHING TO EXHIBIT CAVIES AT THE JUNIOR FAIR ATTEND THE JULY PRE-REGISTRATION ENTRY CLINIC. FOR FIRST- AND SECOND-YEAR MEMBERS IT IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THEY ATTEND THE SPRING EDUCATIONAL CLINIC.

The Junior Fair Cavy Show is under the supervision and direction of the Junior Fair Rabbit & Cavy Committee. The committee will supervise all shows and activities at the fair. Any questions regarding the rules, procedures etc. will be decided by a majority vote of the committee membership. The decision of the Judge is final.

II. PURCHASING/POSSESSION CAVY

V. SKILLATHON = PROJECT COMPLETION

The Junior Fair Rabbit & Cavy Committee has determined that each exhibitor must complete a Skillathon for project completion.

Divisions are	Senior	15 years and up
	Intermediate	12-14 years
	Junior	8-11 years

1. Bring completed project book and one-page report to Skillathon. Your one-page report needs to be separate from your book and be in a SHEET PROTECTOR. The one-page report topic this year is, in your own words “TALK ABOUT 3 CAVY DISEASES.”

If unable to attend Skillathon, books and reports must be turned into a committee member by Saturday, AUGUST 24, 2024. If books and reports are not turned in by deadline, your animal will not compete for any awards. Your animal will be judged at the end of the class for COMMENTS ONLY.

2. Skill-a-thon will consist of 5-6 stations, with each station being timed, to evaluate project knowledge.

VI. CAVY SHOWMANSHIP

1. SHOWMANSHIP IS MANDATORY FOR FIRST- AND SECOND-YEAR EXHIBITORS and showmanship is highly recommended for all other exhibitors. Exhibitors entering showmanship must sign in. You must have the tag number of the animal you will be using.
2. Exhibitors must show his/her OWN project animal, which is entered on their entry form. (See exception, Cavy Rule #10 and contact a committee member as soon as possible). Anyone not doing so will be removed from the competition and forfeit any awards. In case of a tie, all exhibitors involved must be present. Any exhibitor not present will forfeit.
3. Exhibitors should have a good understanding of what is expected of themselves and their Cavy before entering showmanship classes. Attend the spring clinic for this information.
4. Exhibitors must be properly dressed. Wear a long-sleeved shirt or jacket, which can be removed after judging and will protect exhibitor’s arms and clothing. This jacket need not be a show coat or white shirt. NO hats, jewelry, or nail polish should be worn. NO gum and hair should be pulled back.
5. Showmanship Classes are determined by exhibitor’s age as of January 1, current year.

SENIOR	15 years and up
INTERMEDIATE	12 – 14 years
JUNIOR	8 – 11 years

6. All awards and score sheets will be awarded at the completion of all the showmanship classes.
7. An exhibitor may win only once in a showmanship class. These exhibitors may compete in Champion of Champion Showmanship while waiting to move into the next showmanship class.
8. Any member, whose enrollment form was received after the March 15 deadline, may compete for remarks only, not awards.

VII. CHAMPION OF CHAMPION CAVY SHOWMANSHIP

1. Winners of Cavy Showmanship classes (see list above) and any other exhibitors who have won or participated in Champion of Champions in the past but are not eligible to move into the next class yet may participate in Champion of Champions.
2. Champion of Champion Cavy Showmanship will be held on Saturday, August 17th after the Showmanship Championships of the age divisions. The order of competition will be decided by a drawing held before the competition.
3. The winner of Champion of Champions will participate in the Showman of Showman Contest. If the Champion does not wish to participate, the Reserve Champion may go in his/her place.

The winner of Champion of Champions may return to defend the title each year until they advance to the next division. Then they must start over again.

VIII. CAVY SALES

Exhibitors wanting to put their Junior Fair Cavies up for sale may do so after the Cavy Show, by entering the information in the Junior Fair Cavy Sales Book. A 10% Sales Commission will be taken from all Cavy checks to be used for Junior Fair Rabbit & Cavy Committee expenses.
